

J. D. Buckingham
alt. communicatis
June 1 1837

Francis Jackson Esq

Aug 1865

44

Dear Sir

Answer

June 1. 1867

GARRISON
MSS.

Please give me pleasure to oblige you by inserting your communication, if I can afford it. It would probably cost me two or three hundred dollars - a sum much beyond what I am able to lose - to say nothing of what damages a jury might award me in case of a suit for a libel - I am sorry that my position does not permit me to publish all that I think right, but it is a position from which I cannot escape, without making sacrifices which I know you would not wish me to make.

This is for your own private information.

Respectfully your friend

Jas. T. Buckingham